OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. - Armstrong State University senior shortstop Alexis Mercer and junior second baseman Peyton Roth have each been named a second-team All-American by the NFCA, announced Wednesday evening at the organization's annual awards banquet in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mercer earns All-American honors from the coaching organization for the second straight year after being named a first-team All-American shortstop in 2014. The Rincon, Ga., native became the Peach Belt Conference's all-time home run leader this season with 60 career homers. Mercer hit .418 with 14 home runs, 41 RBI, 23 stolen bases and 41 walks drawn in 2015 and also earned All-Peach Belt Conference honors for a third time in her career.

Roth, meanwhile, earns her first career All-American honor for leading the Peach Belt Conference in hits with 75, while ranking second in the league in batting average at .446 and third in the league in on-base percentage at .505. The Fayetteville, Ga., native reached base safely in the first 30 games on 2015 and was a first-team All-PBC honoree.

This is the second straight year that Armstrong has had a pair of All-Americans in the same season (Mercer, Lacye Walker in 2014) and just the fifth year overall in program history.

Armstrong went 32-16 in 2015, advancing to the final of the NCAA Southeast Regional #2 in Milledgeville, the 13th NCAA regionals appearance for Armstrong softball in the last 15 seasons.
